

THE ETERNITY

Damn it, where the hell am I now.

I knew I should'nt have taken that short cut.

Might as well keep going.

What's that up ahead?

What purpose do you have for coming here?

What do you mean?
what are you?
A monster?

Humans may be alot of things but not all of them are bad!

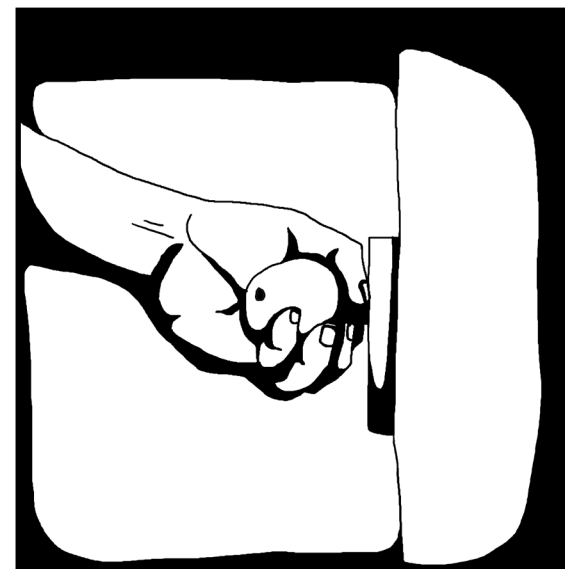

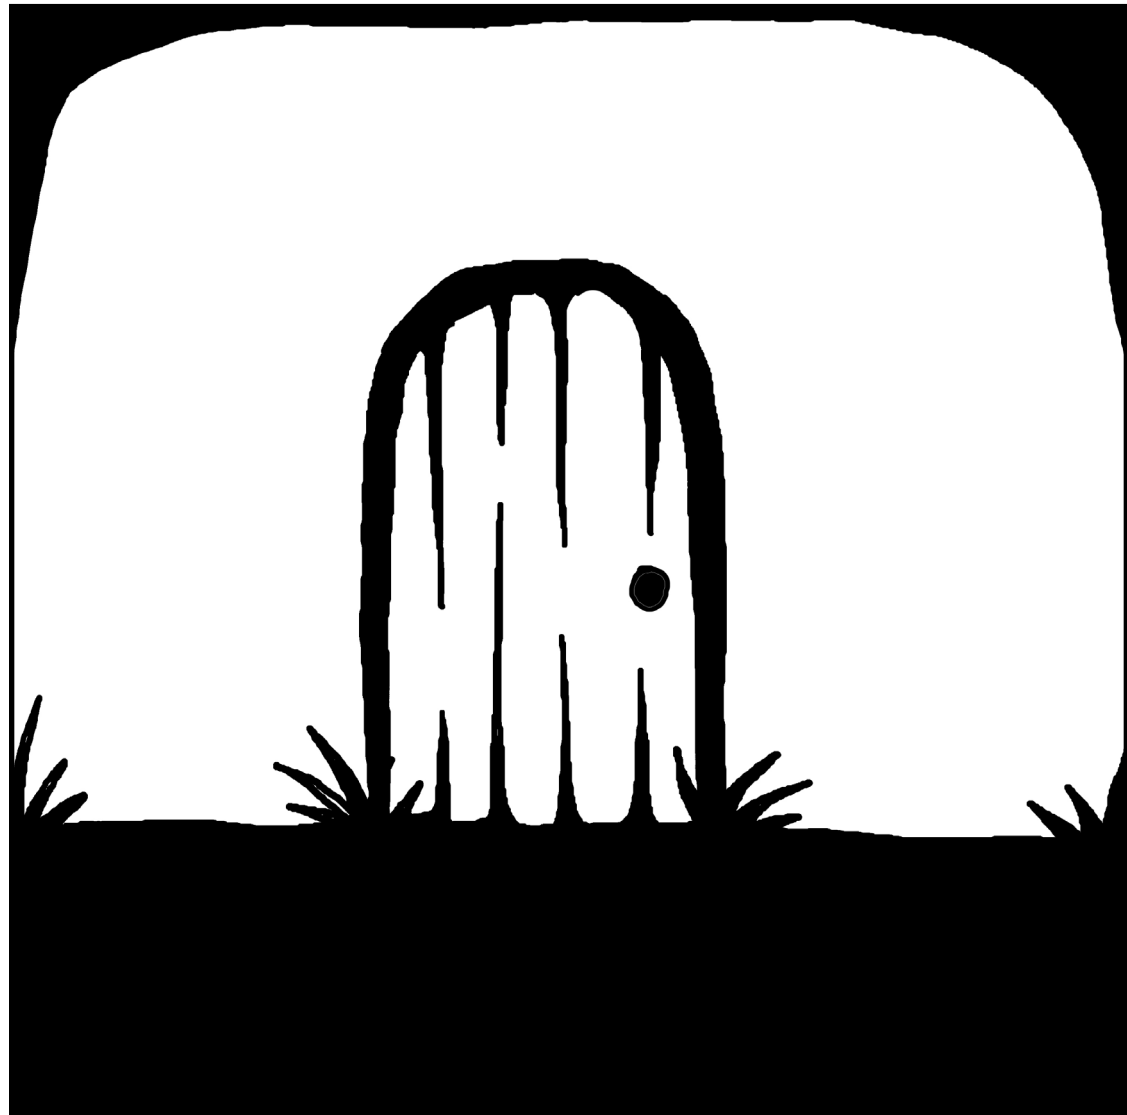

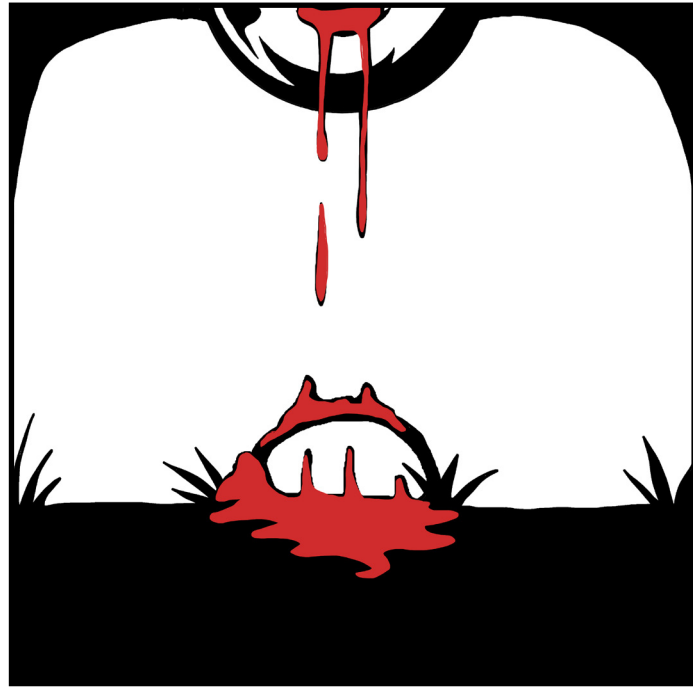

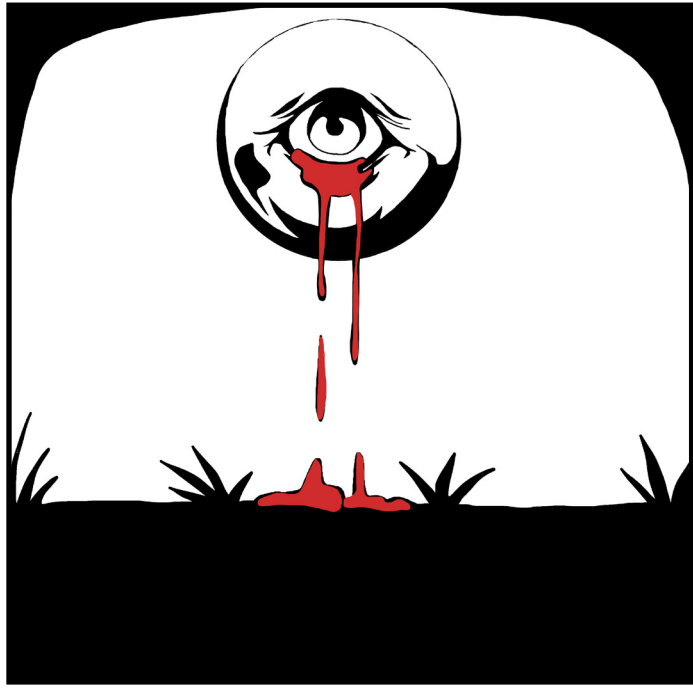

No, mankind is the true monster, humans are arrogant, humans are selfish, humans are hypocrits.

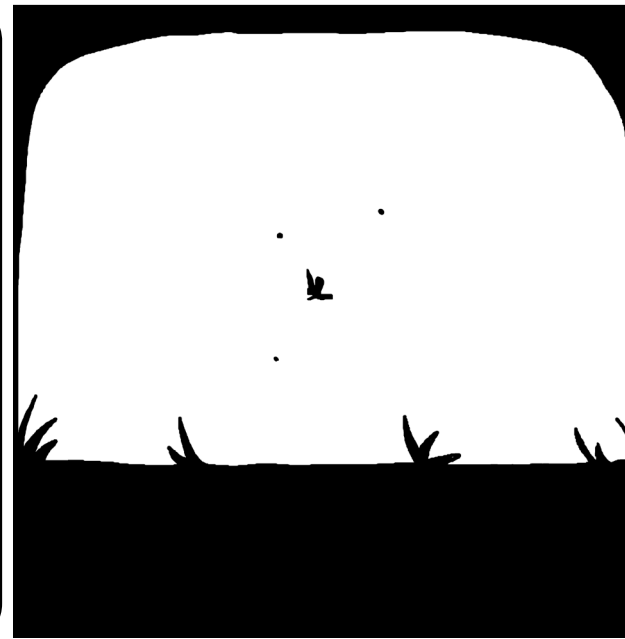

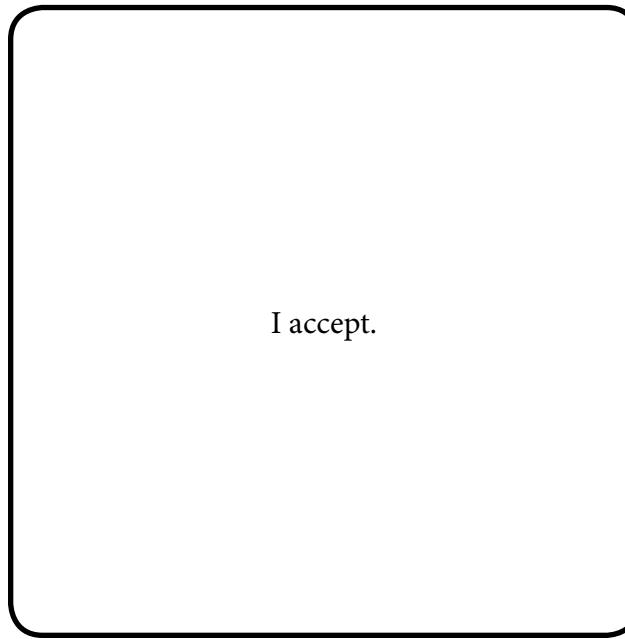

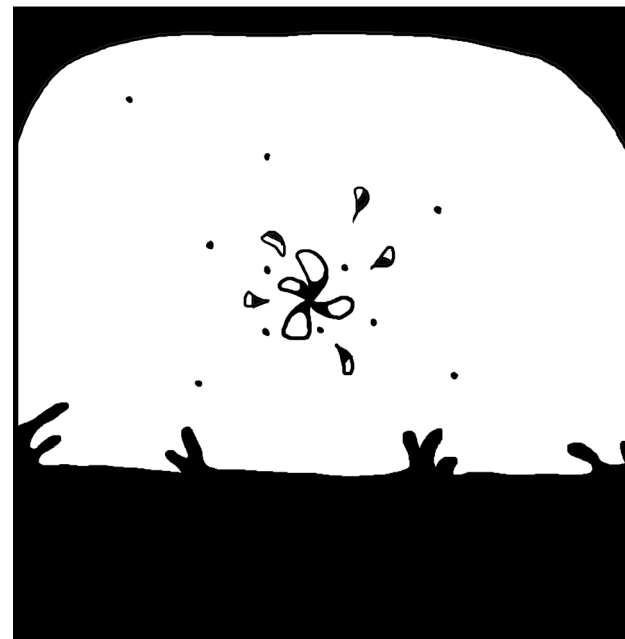

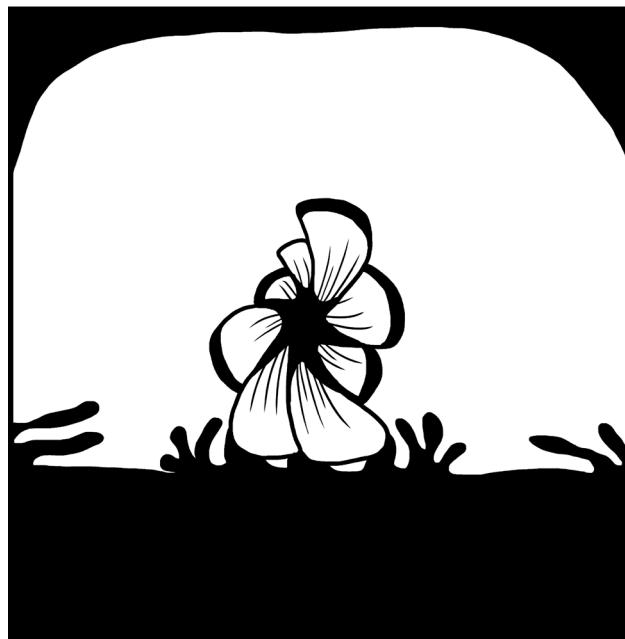

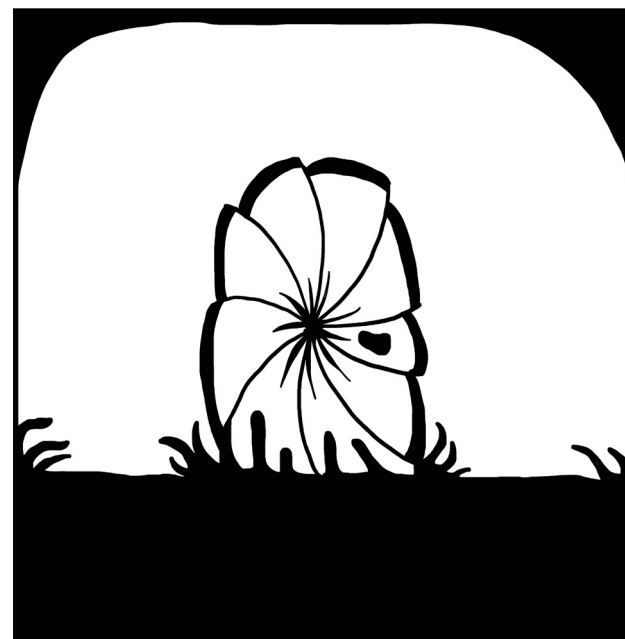

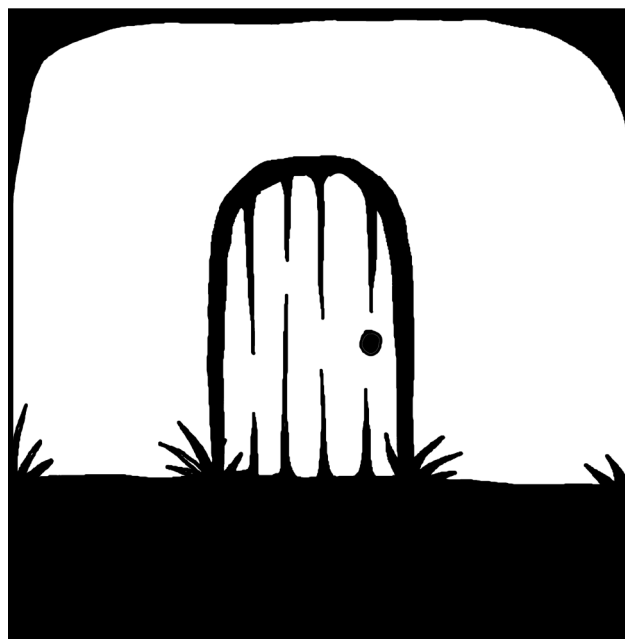

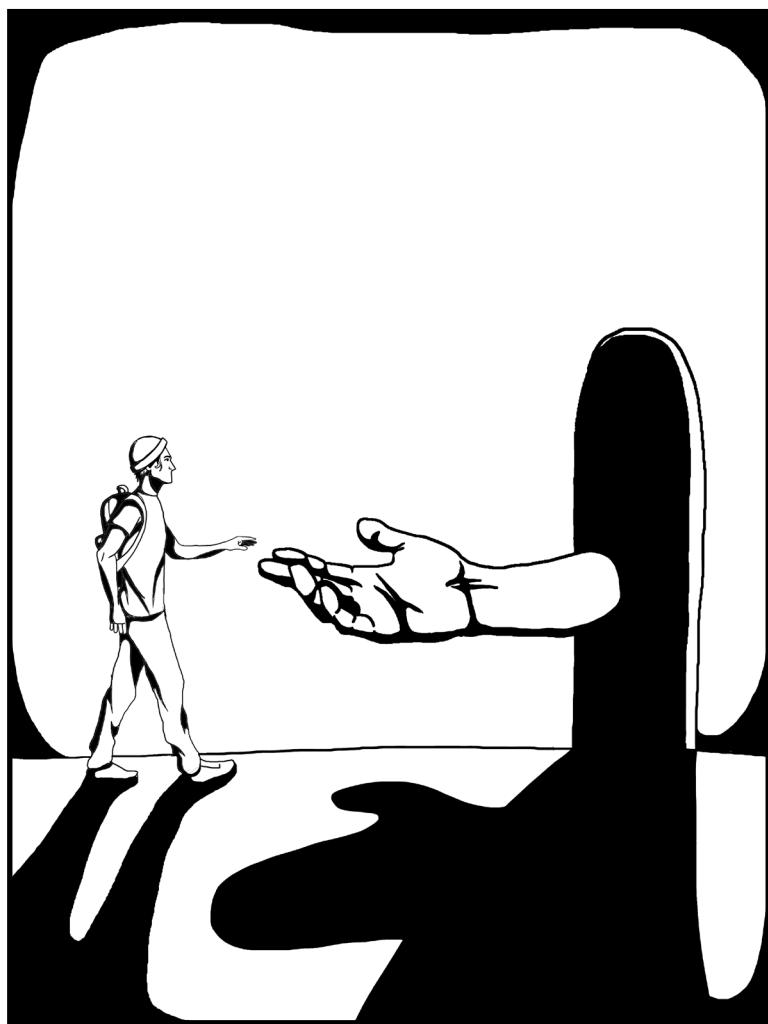

Humans play such a small factor in the universe as whole, but they beleive that their lives are valued above all others on earth, But this is false.

Looking back on the history of mankind, humans have brought nothing but war and destruction to earth. At it's core human ethics are fundimentaly broken.

I present you with a choice, go back to your old life and forget this moment ever happened, or ascend with me and become somthing greater.
